

2018 OVERVIEW

The Australian Secondary Principals' Association (ASPA) advocates for public education through -

- Building the capacity of principals and other school leaders
- Facilitating and enabling networks for secondary educational practice to be shared and celebrated
- Enhancing networks that empower the profession

ENRICHING OUR PROFESSION

- Distribution of ASPA Monograph – Beyond Certainty: A process for thinking about futures for Australian Education.
- Working with Government for the establishment of a Leadership Academy for School Leaders
- Continued advocacy for School Leader wellbeing
- Established an academic arm to ASPA's school leadership work through tertiary partnerships.

